

erly part of Spesutia island; thence continuing said line still westward, within half a mile of, and north of the northern end of said island and the adjacent main land, until it reaches the shore in Harford county, at or near Oakington, shall be subject to the operation of the twenty-two sections following. The parts of Chesapeake Bay and its waters and of Northeast River and its waters above excepted are excepted for the purposes of navigation and anchorage and there shall be no shooting whatever of any kind or at any time on or over said excepted waters.

381. The season for shooting wild fowl northward of the line described in the preceding section, shall begin on the first day of November in each and every year, and continue until the thirty-first day of January next succeeding, in each and every year hereafter; and it shall not be lawful for any person to kill or shoot at wild fowl northward of said line, except from ashore, and southward of a line drawn east from Point Concord light house in Harford County to Carpenter's Point on the western shore of Cecil County, and southward of a line drawn from the point of the stone wharf in Charlestown on the western bank of Northeast River in Cecil County, eastward to Hance Point, on the eastern bank of said river in said county, at any other time; and any person violating the provisions of this section shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not less than fifty dollars and not more than one hundred dollars for each offense.

384. No person shall, at any time, either in the day or night time, shoot or kill, or shoot at any wild fowl, in or over the waters lying northward of the line described in Section 380, from any vessel, boat, float, canoe, sneak-boat, sink-boat, or any other craft of any kind or description whatever, within one-quarter of a mile of any shore in Cecil or Harford counties, or within the waters prohibited by Section 380; and any person violating this section, shall, on conviction thereof, be subject to a penalty for each offense of not less than fifty dollars and not more than one hundred dollars.

385. Any person owning land bordering upon the Chesapeake bay or the Northeast River, within the limits aforesaid, or his assigns, may in the months of October or November, in each year, select and mark any one point on his shore, as reserved for his gunning during the season of or immediately following, said selecting and marking as aforesaid; and thereafter such owner, or his assigns, shall have, during said season,
