CHAPTER 563.

AN ACT to add a new section to Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Prince George's County," to be under sub-title "Building Permits," said new section to be known as Section 91A and to follow immediately after Section 91 of said Article, requiring permits for the construction of all buildings where cost of construction exceeds five hundred dollars and repairing buildings where cost of repairs exceeds five hundred dollars.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and it is hereby added to Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Prince George's County," to be under sub-title "Building Permits," said new section to be known as Section 91A, to follow immediately after Section 91 of said Article and to read as follows:

91A. All persons, firms or corporations shall, before erecting, constructing, or remodeling any building in said Prince George's County where the actual cost of such construction or remodeling shall exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, said person or persons, firm or corporation shall make application to the clerk to the County Commissioners of said county for a permit to erect, build, re-construct or remodel any building within the limits of said county. The application for the permit to build shall set forth in detail the location of the land and the size and approximate cost of the building. That the clerk to the County Commissioners shall be entitled to charge and receive the sum of fifty cents for each permit so issued by him, said sum to be retained by him for issuing said permit. That the permit so issued shall set forth the location of the land upon which the said building is to be located together with a description of the character of the proposed building and the approximate cost of same and said permit shall be issued in triplicate, one to the applicant and one for the County Assessor and one to be retained in the files of the office of the County Commissioners of said county. Provided, however, that where incorporated towns require building permits and have officials who issue such permits, the permits above provided for shall
