

of Health in the city or county in which he or she proposes to practice said profession of embalming.

240. No license granted or issued to practice the profession of embalming under the provisions of this sub-title shall be assignable or transferable, and every license shall specify by name the person to whom it is issued.

241. The duties of an embalmer and the profession of embalming as referred to in this sub-title shall be and the same are hereby defined to be, the thorough disinfection of the human body or any part thereof by arterial and cavity injection.

242. Any person, persons, co-partnership or corporation who shall engage in or hold himself, herself, themselves, or itself out as engaging in the business of Undertaking or discharge the duties of such employment as shall engage him or her in the care, preparation for burial, and burial or shipment of dead human bodies and the disinfection of the clothing and bedding of such deceased person who shall have died from an infectious or contagious disease, or the premises in which he or she shall have died without having complied with the provisions of Sections 236 and 236A of this Article and any superintendent or person in charge (in the absence of the superintendent) of any cemetery or burial place, who shall permit any other person than a duly licensed Undertaker, under Sections 236 and 236A of this Act, to deliver for burial or offer for cremation the body of a deceased person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any Court of competent jurisdiction, shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars, or sentenced to undergo an imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or both in the discretion of the Court for each and every offense. Any person or persons who shall practice or hold himself, herself or themselves out as embalmers in this State, without having complied with the provisions of this sub-title shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any Court in this State shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, or undergo an imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both at the discretion of the Court, for each and every offense; provided that nothing contained in this sub-title shall be construed to apply to bona fide employees of a duly licensed embalmer, who are serving their internship, or the employee of any cemetery whose duty extends no further, or any school of anatomy, medicine or den-