

of election of the respective precincts at or before the end of the day preceding the day of election.

Said Boards of Supervisors of Elections of the several counties shall retain said surplus ballots equal to 25% of the total number of voters as shown by the registry books of any county as aforesaid in their charge, or that of an official designated by them who shall supply them to any judge of election who shall make requisition therefor in writing, stating their first supply of ballots has been exhausted or that for any cause additional ballots are needed, the Board of Supervisors of Election of the several counties shall, in like manner, keep a record of the time when such deliveries are made by them and of the particulars thereof. Said several Boards of Supervisors are hereby respectively authorized and directed to make adequate provision for the performance of the duty imposed upon them by this section, and the County Commissioners of the several counties and the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore City shall pay the expenses incurred in the performance thereof. Should said Board of Supervisors fail or neglect to make the delivery by the time prescribed by this section, it shall be the duty of the judge, designated beforehand by the Supervisors, to take charge of the ballot box, as provided in Section 77 of this Article, to immediately send to the Supervisors therefor, and to obtain the same as soon as practicable, in order that the election may be duly held, the cost hereby incurred to be paid by the County Commissioners or the Mayor and City Council as the case may be as a part of the election expenses. For failure or neglect on the part of the Supervisors of Elections, the Police Commissioner or any person employed by them respectively in the discharge of the duties required of them by this section, or said judges, or any person employed by them to perform the duties imposed upon them respectively by this section, they shall respectively be subject to indictment for a misdemeanor, and upon conviction therefor shall be subject to the penalties prescribed by Section 96 of this Article.
