RESOLVED, That the people of the State of Maryland, represented in the Senate and House of Delegates, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Resolved by the Senate and the House of Delegates of the State of Maryland, That a State Commission is hereby created, to consist of fifteen members, of whom three ex officio members shall be the Governor of the State of Maryland, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Delegates; and of whom six shall be appointed by the Governor, three by the President of the Senate, and three by the Speaker of the House of Delegates, to act for the State in connection with the celebration in the year 1932, in the State of Maryland, and elsewhere in the United States, and by the nation as a whole, of the bi-centennial of the birth of George Washington, who led the American people through a successful revolution, who presided at the convention which gave to the Republic its constitution, who was the nation's first President, and who died and has since lived as first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen; the Commission so created to act with any Commission created under the Act of the Congress, and with such other Commissions as may hereafter be established under the authority of the respective States, and with the civil, national committee established by the Sulgrave Institution, and with such other civic bodies whose activities may relate to such a signaling of this eventful anniversary.

SEC. 2. Such Commission shall continue for a period of one year after the expiration of the celebration, on December 31, 1932, and shall file its annual report within a period of ninety days after the final event of the celebration.

SEC. 3. Such Commission shall represent the State of Maryland in respect to the formulation of a plan or plans of celebration, in association with other Commissions and committees as referred to in Section 1 of this Act; and shall participate in the carrying out of the program so arranged; and and with the President of the Senate, and with the Speaker of the House of Delegates, for submission to their respective bodies; and to make therein such recommendations to be acted upon by the ensuing Administration and General Assembly of the State of Maryland, as may be deemed advisable and essen-
