

tion be in favor of said proposition, and the Mayor and Council of Salisbury shall then levy a tax sufficient to support or employ such band, not to exceed five cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessed valuation of said city.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That a like petition may at any time be presented to the Mayor and Council of Salisbury, asking that the following proposition be submitted, to wit: "Shall the power to levy a tax for the maintenance or employment of a band be cancelled?"; that said submission shall be made at the next following general municipal election or at a special election to be called by the Mayor and Council for the said purpose upon the same notice and subject to the same laws as the general election held by said municipality, and if the majority of the votes cast be in favor of said question, no further levy for said purposes shall be made by the Mayor and Council of Salisbury.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That all funds derived from said levy shall be expended by the Mayor and Council of Salisbury only for the purposes set forth in the first section of this Act.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect on the date of its passage.

Approved April 9, 1924.

CHAPTER 96.

AN ACT to add a new section to Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Prince George's County," said new section to be under a new sub-title entitled "Cemeteries," to be known as Section 80A and to follow immediately after Section 80 of said Article, making it a misdemeanor to establish a cemetery or graveyard in the seventeenth (17) election district of Prince George's County without the written permission of the County Commissioners and prescribing certain penalties for committing the same, and giving the County Commissioners certain powers where the same is about to be or has been committed.
