

Station at Forest Glen, known as the Kensington-Forest Glen road, on the condition that the property owners donate without cost to the County and in such form and upon such conditions as the County Commissioners may prescribe the property needed in changing the curves and widening the said road. If the said property owners, on or before May 15, 1924, fail or refuse to donate the property necessary for these purposes, then and in that event this Act shall become null and void as to the above-mentioned road and bonds to the extent of twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($22,500) shall not be issued.

(2) Two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) shall be used for the permanent improvement of a part of the road leading from the Kensington-Wheaton road to Rockville, known as Vier's Mill road, upon the condition that the property owners shall donate the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) to aid in making said improvements, making a total of three thousand dollars ($3,000) for improving said road. If, on or before May 15, 1924, the said property owners have not agreed in writing upon such terms as the County Commissioners may prescribe to make said donation of five hundred dollars ($500), then and in that event this Act shall become null and void as to the above mentioned road, and bonds to the extend of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) shall not be issued.

(3) Two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) shall be used for the permanent improvement of a part of the road leading from Swart's Corner on the Wheaton-Four Corners' Road to the Kemp Mill-Colesville road, upon the condition that the property owners shall donate the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) to aid in making said improvements, making a total of three thousand dollars ($3,000) for improving said road. If, on or before May 15, 1924, the said property owners have not agreed in writing upon such terms as the County Commissioners may prescribe to make said donation of five hundred dollars ($500) then and in that event this Act shall become null and void as to the above-mentioned road and bonds to the extent of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) shall not be issued.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safty, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the mem-