

217B. It shall be unlawful to shoot at or shoot any Wild Fowl over the waters of Chester River and its tributaries in the jurisdiction of Kent County except on Mondays and Fridays of each week during the open season, and except further that it shall be lawful to shoot at or shoot any Wild Fowl over the waters of Chester River and its tributaries in the jurisdiction of Kent County every day of the week during the last week of the month of January in each year.

217C. It shall be lawful, however, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays of every week during the open season to shoot at or shoot wild fowl in Comegys Bight, a tributary of the Chester River, in Kent County, from a sink box and from a stick or floating blind and from any boat or float placed in such stick or floating blind; provided such sink box, stick or floating blind shall not be anchored, tied or erected at a greater distance than 400 yards from shore, and it shall not be lawful to erect, tie or anchor such stick or floating blind within 400 yards of one already erected, tied or anchored, in accordance with the provisions of this section. Any person or club before shooting from such sink box, stick or floating blind must first obtain a license therefor from the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Kent County and shall pay the sum of twenty dollars ($20.00) for such sink box license and the sum of five dollars ($5.00) for such stick or floating blind license.

SEC 2. And be it further enacted. That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1924.

Approved April 9, 1924.

CHAPTER 128.

AN ACT to amend Article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Cambridge," as enacted by Chapter 241 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, 1920, by repealing Section 58B thereof, and re-enacting the same, in different form, and to be designated as Section 58B, when re-enacted.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 58B of Article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Cambridge," as enacted by Chapter 211 of the Acts of the
