

hereinbefore provided and the payment of the interest due each year on the bonds of this issue still outstanding.

SEC. 4A. And be it further enacted, That before this Act shall become operative, the Mayor and Town Council of Lonaconing shall submit the question of issuing the aforesaid bonds to the qualified voters of said town, at either the next succeeding general municipal election, or at a special election to be held in said town at a time to be designated by the said Mayor and Town Council, and of which due notice shall be given by the Mayor and Town Council by advertisement in both daily newspapers published in Allegany County, and by handbills distributed throughout said town. Said advertisement of said election shall be given at least twenty days before the date set for said election; at said election the ballots cast by the voters shall have printed thereon "For Improvement Bonds" and "Against Improvement Bonds," with a square after the words in each case for the capital "X" mark of the voter; and if the majority of the votes cast on said question shall be for said improvement bonds, then the Mayor and Town Council of Lonaconing may proceed to execute the powers vested in it by the provisions of this Act; but if the majority of the votes cast on said question shall be against improvement bonds, then this Act shall be null and void.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That any and all Acts of Assembly or part or parts of Acts inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed in so far as the same are inconsistent with this Act.
