SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 8 of Chapter 88 of the Acts of 1920, entitled "An Act to provide certain regulations for the shooting of wild fowl in, on or over the waters of Talbot County," as amended by Chapter 304 of the Acts of 1922, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as as follows:

8. All owners of riparian rights on the said waters of Talbot County shall, by virtue of said ownership, be first entitled to make a choice of the "set" or position in front of the property in which they are owners of the riparian rights for the purpose of erecting and maintaining any booby blind, stake blind, floating blind, sink box or artificial point of any description, provided that said riparian owners shall avail themselves of said choice of locality and clearly mark the same within not less than twenty days prior to the open season fixed by law for shooting wild fowl on the waters of Talbot County. Provided further, that no person shall erect or place a blind less than two hundred and fifty yards from the property of any other person.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1924.

Approved March 5, 1924.

CHAPTER 27.

AN ACT to authorize in their discretion the County Commissioners of Washington County to levy and collect five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars in the year 1924 for the repair of the building in Hagerstown, occupied by the Washington County Free Library.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the County Commissioners of Washington County be and they are hereby authorized, in their discretion, not mandatorily, to levy and collect in the year 1924 five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars for the repairs, both inside and outside, of the building in Hagerstown occupied by the Washington County Free Library.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners for Washington County be and they are hereby authorized, in their discretion, not mandatorily, to levy in
