

“For Sidewalk Loan,” with a blank square opposite at the right of said words and immediately thereunder shall be the following words:

“Against Sidewalk Loan,” with a blank square opposite at the right of said words.

And in event that said election shall be held at the same time that the regular town election is held, said words and blank squares shall be printed on the regular ballot for said election, and the officials in charge of said regular election shall act as officials of this election and said votes shall be canvassed at the same time and in the same manner as are votes for the regular election.

And in event that said election shall be held at some time other than a regular election the poll books showing the registered voters of said town last registered shall be used.

In the event that at such election the majority of votes cast for and against the sidewalk loan shall be in favor of the sidewalk loan, then this Act shall be in full force and effect, but in event that the majority of votes so cast shall be against the sidewalk loan then the Mayor and Common Council may submit the same question in the same manner and under this Act to the qualified voters of said town at the succeeding general elections in said town for a period of three successive years, if the same shall not be approved before the expiration of such period.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a ye and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect on the date of its passage.

Approved March 5, 1924.

CHAPTER 31.

AN ACT to authorize and empower the County Commissioners of Baltimore County to borrow upon the faith and credit of said county, a sum not to exceed one million five hundred thousand ($1,500,000) dollars, and to issue and sell coupon bonds therefor, and to pay the proceeds thereof to the Board of Education of Baltimore County for the erection
