

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of redeeming said bonds at their maturity and for the purpose of securing the prompt payment of the interest coupons, the said County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall, for the year 1925 and annually thereafter until the maturity of the last of said bonds issued under the authority of this Act, levy a tax upon the assessable property of said county sufficient to pay the annual interest on all of said bonds that may be issued and outstanding, as said interest becomes due and payable, and also in addition thereto the said County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall, for the year 1927 and annually thereafter levy a tax upon the assessable property in said county sufficient to pay and retire all of said bonds as they shall mature.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That before the issuance of said bonds the question of the issuance of said bonds shall be submitted to a vote of the duly registered voters of Baltimore County at the election to be held in said county on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1924, and the Supervisors of Election in said county shall furnish the necessary ballots for said election and shall have printed upon the face of each ballot a distinct reference to this Act, and upon each ballot shall be printed these words with a suitable square to the right of each:

For the Bond Issue.
Against the Bond Issue.

And the said Supervisors of Election shall certify the result of said election to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, and the said clerk shall certify the same to the County Commissioners; and if a majority of the duly registered voters of Baltimore County voting at said election declare in favor of the issuance of said bonds, the County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall be authorized and empowered to issue said bonds as and for the purposes provided in this Act; and if a majority of the duly registered voters of Baltimore County voting at said election declare against the issuance of said bonds then the provisions of this Act shall be null and void and none of the said bonds shall be issued.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That no purchaser of any of the bonds authorized by this Act and no holder thereof, for value and in good faith, shall be bound to see to the application of the purchase money of said bonds and the rights
