

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 116 of Article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (Dennis' Edition), title "Frederick County," sub-title "County Commissioners," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, and that a new section be added to said article, said new section to be known as Section 116A, to follow immediately after Section 116 of said Article, and all to read as follows:

116. The next election of county commissioners of Frederick County shall be held on Tuesday after the first Monday in the month of November, in the year 1926, and on the same day in every fourth year thereafter, and there shall then be elected five County Commissioners, which number shall thenceforth compose the Board of County Commissioners; and said commissioners so elected shall each receive for the service performed by them an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars, payable in monthly installments of one hundred twenty-five dollars by the County Treasurer of said county, as full compensation for services and mileage; provided, however, should any emergency arise necessitating them, or either of them, to go outside Frederick County to perform any duties pertaining to their office, then each of them so doing shall be reimbursed from the miscellaneous fund of said county for his actual and necessary expenses.

116A. The County Commissioners of Frederick County shall meet three days in each week at their office in Frederick City for the transaction of general business and may hold other meetings, either at their office, or elsewhere, in or without said county, as their duties may require, and on two of the remaining days of each week each of said County Commissioners shall as their duties require, supervise the special territory in said county allotted to him, in order that he may keep in close touch with the needs of such special territory.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That nothing contained in this Act shall be taken to affect or impair in any way the tenures of the present Board of Commissioners, but that they shall each be entitled to serve out the full term for which they were elected.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect December 1, 1926.

Approved April 9, 1924.
