

CHAPTER 206.

AN ACT to provide for the payment of a pension to Frederick Ehlers by the Police Commissioner for the City of Baltimore out of the Special Fund.

(Vetoed.)

CHAPTER 207.

AN ACT to repeal Section 241F of Article 22 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Washington County," sub-title "Hancock," and to repeal and re-enact with amendments Sections 230, 231 and 241J of said Article, fixing the compensation of the Burgess and certain officers, and relating to the powers of the Burgess and Commissioners to provide by ordinance for the closing, opening and paving of streets, and making other changes in the charter of the town of Hancock.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 241F of Article 22 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Washington County," sub-title "Hancock," be and it is hereby repealed, and that Sections 230, 231 and 241J of said Article, be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

230. The Burgess, by virtue of his office shall see that the ordinances of the town are faithfully executed and shall report to the Commissioners at its first meeting after each annual election the condition of the municipal affairs; the Burgess shall issue all licenses provided by the ordinances of the Burgess and Commissioners, and pay over the same to the Treasurer at such times as may be provided by ordinance of the Burgess and Commissioners.

231. The Burgess, assistant Burgess and Commissioners shall each qualify as such before a Justice of the Peace or a Notary Public, for Washington County, making oath that they will discharge the duties of their respective offices, according to the best of their skill and judgment, without fear, favor or partiality to any person; a copy of which oath, with a certificate of the Justice of the Peace or Notary Public administering the same, shall be entered upon the Journal of the Corporation, and for their respective services shall each receive three dollars for each and every regular monthly meeting attended by them.