CHAPTER 243.

AN ACT to regulate the hunting and killing of raccoons in Harford County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be unlawful for any person within Harford County to shoot, kill, take, trap or hunt for any raccoon within the limits of said county, between the first day of January and the first day of November in any year, exclusive of both dates, and no person or persons shall at any time set, place, keep or maintain any steel traps or other similar devices within said county for the purpose of catching raccoons.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That any person convicted before any Justice of the Peace of the herein named county for violating this Act, shall be fined not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than twenty-five dollars ($25) and costs for each and every offense. The fine collected shall be paid to the State Comptroller to be credited to the account of the State Game Protection Fund. Provided, that any person who fails to pay the fine so imposed shall be committed to jail for a term not to exceed twenty-five days for each and every offense.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That all laws, whether public local or public general laws, inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect, June 1, 1924.

Approved April 9, 1924.
