

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the sum of Two Thousand Dollars of the principal of said bonds shall be paid on the first day of April, 1925, and the sum of Two Thousand Dollars on the first day of April of each and every year thereafter up to and including the year 1936, and the sum of One Thousand Dollars on the first day of April, 1937, at which date all of the said issue of bonds will have been retired. The said bonds shall be numbered consecutively from number one (1) and shall be redeemed and paid in the order in which they are numbered. There shall be levied annually by The Mayor and Council of Salisbury upon all property liable to taxation in the City of Salisbury, at the regular tax levying period, an amount sufficient to meet and pay the interest on said bonds so issued and outstanding, and to meet and pay the principal of said bonds as they shall become due, from time to time, which tax shall be levied and collected as other City taxes now are, or may be hereafter by law levied and collected, and have the same priority rights, bear the same interest and penalties, and in every respect be treated the same as other City taxes now are. Said amount so levied and collected shall be kept in a separate fund to be used for the payment of said interest and principal, and for no other purpose whatsoever.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 9, 1924.

CHAPTER 286.

AN ACT to add a new section to Article LXV of the Annotated Code of Maryland (Bagby's Edition), title, "Militia," as enacted by Chapter 490 of the Acts of 1922, said new section to be known as Section 11-A, to follow immediately after Section 11 of said Article, authorizing and directing the Ranking Line Officer of the Maryland National Guard to take out, pay for and maintain a policy or policies of insurance under the Workmen's Compensation Law to secure compensation to officers and enlisted men of the organized militia of the State of Maryland.
