

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 249, 250 and 251 of Article 43 of Bagby's Code of Public General Laws of Maryland be, and the same are hereby repealed.

Approved April 9, 1924.

CHAPTER 338.

AN ACT to repeal section 173 of the Acts of 1886, Chapter 184, one of the Public Laws of the City of Baltimore and Codified as Section 316 in the Revised Charter of Baltimore City 1915, as amended by Chapter 625 of the Acts of 1916 relating to appeals from Baltimore City and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 173 of the Acts of 1886, Chapter 184, Codified in the Revised Charter of Baltimore City as Section 316, as amended by Chapter 625 of the Acts of 1916, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows:

“Bills of Exceptions may be signed in any cause pending in any of said courts, at any time within the period that the parties, or any of them, shall have the right to file an appeal from the rendition of the verdict by the jury or the findings of the court upon the issue of fact in said cause; and upon filing the order for such an appeal, the time for signing said Bills of Exceptions shall thereby be further extended until twenty days before the period within which it is required that the record shall be transmitted to the Court of Appeals; provided that the party appealing, or his counsel, shall submit the bills of exceptions to the appellee, or his counsel, not less than thirty-five days prior to the time that the record must be filed in the Court of Appeals, for the purpose of amendments or additions to the said Bills of Exceptions, and the appellee, or his counsel, within ten days after said Bills of Exceptions shall have been submitted to him, shall return said Bills of Exceptions to the appellant, or his counsel, with such amendments or additions as he may desire. And upon his failure to return said Bills of Exceptions within said time, the Bills of Exceptions shall be signed by the Court, as originally prepared by the appellant, or his counsel. If the said appellee, or his counsel, shall return the said Bills of Exceptions to the
