

one of said number as a Sergeant of Police, who shall receive the sum of eighteen hundred dollars ($1,800) per annum, payable monthly, and the same sum of three hundred dollars ($300) in lieu of all other expenses to the County for the maintenance and up-keep of a motorcycle or motor vehicle, whichever may be furnished by the County Commissioners and used by the Sergeant of Police in the performance of his duties as herein prescribed. That the sheriff as the Chief of Police shall have control and supervision over the other members of the force, and shall assign them to such duties, and at such hours, and at such locations as he may deem proper; and he shall prescribe such rules and regulations to govern and direct said force in the execution of writs, summons and process and other duties to be performed by them, as will be most conducive to the quick administration of law and justice. He shall so arrange his office and his force of assistants as at both day and night, in emergency, communication can be got with his office, and his assistants, and relief promptly had whenever and wherever actually and justifiably required.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That, the Constables at Large, so appointed, be, and they are hereby required to report to the sheriff as the Chief of Police immediately after their appointment and qualification, and at all times shall be under the control and supervision of their Chief; and each and all members of said force shall at all times, while on duty, unless for good reasons otherwise ordered by the Chief of Police, wear the prescribed uniform and equipment hereby authorized. The County Commissioners may in their discretion, furnish both the sheriff as the Chief of Police and Deputy Sheriff with a motorcycle or motor vehicle, in which event he shall likewise receive the sum of three hundred dollars ($300) as hereinbefore directed to be paid the Constables at Large, and for the same and only for the same purpose. That each and every Constable at Large, and so appointed, shall be required before entering upon the duties of his office, to execute a bond to the State of Maryland, to be approved by the County Commissioners, in the penalty of two thousand dollars ($2,000) conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, said bond to be recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Prince George's County. That any and all members of said Prince George's County Police may be required to execute any and all writs or process issued by the Police Justice of Prince George's
