

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds, and for redeeming said bonds as they mature, said Board of County Commissioners shall, for the year nineteen hundred and twenty-seven, and annually thereafter, until all of said bonds, issued under the authority of this Act, shall mature and be redeemed, levy a tax upon the assessable property of said County, sufficient to pay the annual interest on said bonds outstanding and to redeem said bonds as they mature and become due, said taxes to be collected as other taxes in said County are collected.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That if, for any reason whatsoever, there should be a surplus of funds left in the hands of said Board of Education after all expenditures have been made in keeping with the terms of this Act, said surplus shall be paid back to the Board of County Commissioners of Howard County, to be used by them to retire said bonds.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an Emergency Law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a Yea and Nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the Members of each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 26, 1927.
