

required in each and every year while the bonds hereby authorized or any of them are outstanding and unpaid, beginning with the year preceding the year in which the first of said bonds shall fall due, to levy and collect a special tax on the property of all kinds and description, liable to assessment and taxation in Carroll County, which tax shall be sufficient to pay the interest on the bonds outstanding by them issued under the provisions of this Act, and the principal thereof as the same shall severally fall due, until they shall have all been redeemed and retired at the time of maturity; and the proceeds of such special tax collected shall by the said The County Commissioners of Carroll County be placed in some safe depository as a separate and distinct fund and by them applied only to the payment of the interest and redemption of said bonds, when and as soon as they become due and redeemable; and when redeemed said bonds and any interest coupons shall be cancelled; and said taxes are pledged to the payment of the interest and principal of said bonds and can be used for no other purpose, except, when all of said bonds and the coupons thereon shall have been paid, the balance if any in such fund shall be used for such public school purposes in Carroll County, as shall be agreed upon and determined by said Board of Education and the said The County Commissioners of Carroll County.

SEC. 14 And be it further enacted, That the provisions of this Act shall be construed as additional and supplemental to and not in substitution for or in conflict with any of the provisions of the General Laws of the State of Maryland relating to public schools and the powers of the State Superintendent of Education under the provisions of said General Laws.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That before the issuing of said bonds or any of them, the question of the issuing of said bonds as hereinbefore set forth shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of Carroll County, at a special election to be held in said county, on Monday, the twenty-sixth day of September, 1927, and the Supervisors of Election of Carroll County shall furnish the ballots necessary for said election and shall have printed on said ballot the title of this Act, and upon said ballot shall be printed these words, with a suitable square to the right of each:

FOR THE SCHOOL BOND ISSUE
AGAINST THE SCHOOL BOND ISSUE

And if, at said election the number of ballots cast upon said question and reading "For the School Bond Issue" shall exceed the number of ballots cast upon said question and reading "Against the School Bond Issue," the said The County Commissioners of Carroll County shall be and are hereby authorized and
