SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1927.

Approved April 26, 1927.

CHAPTER 622.

AN ACT to give fire engines, hose trucks and other fire apparatus and equipment, also ambulances, right of way over all vehicular and other traffic on roads, highways and streets in Talbot County, and to provide penalties for failing to give said right of way.

WHEREAS the protection and preservation of human life and property requires that fire engines, vehicles and apparatus used in Talbot County, Maryland by organized fire departments, including volunteer fire companies, should be given right of way over all vehicular and other traffic on, over and across the roads, highways and streets in Talbot County, and the protection and preservation of human life and health requires that ambulances should be given right of way in like manner on and over said roads, highways and streets in Talbot County.

Now therefore:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That fire engines, hose trucks, auxiliary fire service trucks and other fire apparatus and equipment of organized fire departments, including volunteer fire compaines, and ambulances, while being operated or driven on the public roads, highways or streets in Talbot County and while sounding a gong, bell, siren or other loud signal either continuously, or intermit-
