

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That said Corporation shall have power and authority to bind out, apprentice or place in suitable families, for a limited time or until such child or children shall arrive at the age of 21 years, any child or children committed or otherwise entrusted to its care and control, provided that if any such child is apprenticed or bound out, the same shall be done in conformity to the laws of the State of Maryland, relating thereto.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That all of said children committed or entrusted, and under the control of said Corporation, of school age, and residing in Garrett County, shall be entitled to the privilege of attending the public schools of said County, and it shall be the duty of the said Corporation, and its respective officers and agents, to see that all such children attend such public schools, or some other school of like advantages, the number of days each year, while under its care and control, as is required of other children of like age, by the school laws of the State of Maryland.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That said Corporation, through its respective officers and agents, shall keep in touch with any and all children bound out, apprenticed or otherwise placed in suitable homes or families, by it, and see that such children are properly treated and instructed, and are receiving the advantages of a common school education, and shall at all times, during the term that said child or children is or are entrusted to its care, to retain and exercise a supervisory control over said children.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That said Corporation shall have no capital stock, it being its purpose to depend upon free-will offerings, donations, bequests and gifts for its maintenance and support.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That said Corporation shall have the power and authority to accept and receive gifts, donations, bequests, legacies and other contributions for its support and maintenance.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That all property of said Corporation, real, personal and mixed, shall be exempt from State, County and municipal taxation, to the same extent as other charitable and benevolent institutions of this State are exempt under the laws thereof.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That said Corporation shall have power and authority to make and adopt all such rules,