

title 39 of the Annotated Code of the Public General Laws of Maryland, titled "Fish and Fisheries;" said new sub-title to be "Susquehanna," and said new Sections to be known as Section 67-A and Section 67-B, and to read as follows:

SEC. 67-A. It shall be unlawful for any person to take or catch fish of any description, except with hook and line, in that portion of the Susquehanna River bounded on the upper side by the new dam now being erected across said River, at a point a short distance above Shure's Landing, and bounded on the lower side by what is known as Hogback Shoals, which shoals extend from McGibney's Lock on the old Tidewater Canal on the Harford side, to a point about one mile above Canal Station on the Columbia branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad, on the Cecil side of said River; provided that nothing in this Act shall prohibit the Department of Fisheries of the Federal Government or the Conservation Department of Maryland from taking fish from said prohibited area, in any manner said departments may see fit, for the purpose of propagation. Provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not become effective until the completion of the aforementioned dam.

SEC. 67-B. Any person or persons violating the provisions of Section 67-A shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, thereof before a Justice of the Peace, either in Harford or Cecil Counties, shall be fined not less than Fifty Dollars, ($50) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars, ($500) and shall be committed to jail until such fine, together with the costs of prosecution, have been fully paid, and in addition thereto, all nets, boats or other paraphernalia used in connection with the violation of the provisions of Section 67-A shall be forfeited to the Conservation Department of Maryland, and the receipts derived from the sale of such property, together with the amount of the fine, shall go to the said Conservation Department, to be credited to the Conservation Fund.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on the First day of June, 1927.

Approved April 26, 1927.

CHAPTER 637.

AN ACT concerning aeronautics and to make uniform the law with reference thereto, and to add an additional article to the Code of Public General Laws to follow Article 1 of Bagby's Annotated Code of 1924 and to be known as Article 1-A, title "Aeronautics."