

CHAPTER 100.

AN ACT to add a new section to the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Baltimore County," sub-title "Roads and Streets," as compiled by T. Scott Offutt, and published by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County (1916), to be known as Section 511-A, and to follow immediately after Section 511, to give power and authority to the Roads Engineer of Baltimore County to pass upon proposed grades of roads and streets, and to approve the laying out and location of streets, alleys and highways in Baltimore County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section to be known as Section 511-A, and to follow immediately after Section 511, be and it is hereby added to the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Baltimore County," sub-title "Roads and Streets," as compiled by T. Scott Offutt, and published by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County (1916).

511-A. The Roads Engineer of Baltimore County shall have the power and authority to approve in writing the general plan of streets, avenues and highways which may be adopted by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, or as any plan so adopted may be amended. Said Roads Engineer may formulate a general plan of laying out and locating streets, alleys and highways in Baltimore County, and recommend the same to the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, who, if they approve the same, are authorized to accept and adopt it as a general plan for the location of streets, and ways in said territory, and no avenues, streets, alleys, roads or ways in Baltimore County within three miles of the boundary line of Baltimore City, shall hereafter be opened, established or condemned, nor shall the dedication of the same be adopted, nor sewer or water pipes laid therein, unless the same, including alignment and established grades, shall have been approved in writing by the said Roads Engineer of Baltimore County, or unless the same shall conform to the general plan and grades of streets, alleys and ways which may be adopted for said territory by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, or as any plan so adopted may be amended.

Approved March 23, 1927.
