Any workman of the age of sixteen years and upwards may himself exercise the election hereby authorized. The right of election hereby authorized shall be exercised on behalf of any workman under the age of sixteen years by his parent or guardian.

The provisions of this Article shall apply to employers and employees engaged in intra-state and also in interstate or foreign commerce, for whom a rule of liability or method of compensation has been or may be established by the Congress of the United States, only to the extent that their mutual connection with intra-state work may and shall be clearly separable and distinguishable from interstate or foreign commerce, except that any such employer and any of his workmen only in this State may, with the approval of the Commission, and so far as not forbidden by any Act of Congress, voluntarily accept the provisions of this Article by filing written acceptance with the Commission, which shall subject the acceptors to the provisions of this Article to all intents and purposes as if they had been originally included in its terms.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1927.

Approved April 26, 1927.

CHAPTER 657.

AN ACT to add a new section to Chapter 90 of the Acts of 1912, entitled "An Act providing for the establishment of scholarships in applied science or advanced technology available to the residents of this State; appropriating to the Johns Hopkins University for this purpose the sum of six hundred thousand dollars, and also the annual sum of fifty thousand dollars, and providing also a bond issue for said appropriation of six hundred thousand dollars," said new section to be known as Section 4-A and to follow immediately after Section 4 of said Act, providing that vacancies in scholarships because of lack of eligible applicants from any county or district may be filled from another county or district, the quota of which is already filled.
