

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and Common Council may provide by ordinance for the good government of the town preservation of peace and good order therein, and prohibit all such business or occupations within the corporation limits thereof as shall in their opinion injuriously affect the sanitary conditions thereof, and for securing to the residents of said town all rights of persons and property to which they are by law entitled, for the surveying, grading, paving, lighting, repairing, draining, laying-out, extending, opening, closing, straightening, or relocating any of the streets, side walks or alleys in said town, and may condemn or purchase the right of way for any street or alley which it may determine shall be opened for the public good, the process of condemnation to conform so far as may be to the condemnation of property for roadways by the Commissioners of Prince George's County, as authorized by law for the removal of nuisances; for the removal of obstructions from streets, lanes and alleys; for the establishment of building lines and building regulations; for prohibiting the discharge of fire arms, fire crackers, torpedoes, and other explosives; for preventing swine, cattle, fowls, dogs, or other animals from running at large on the streets; for granting franchises, licenses, taxing and regulating occupations and professions and all amusements and public exhibitions for the purpose of raising revenue to meet the current expenses of the town, as well as for the purpose of the proper protection of the health, good order and peace of the town; for the suppression of gambling, vice and immorality; for the apprehending and punishing of all tramps and vagrants. It may pass also ordinances necessary from time to time to carry out and enforce the foregoing provisions, and any other lawful ordinance necessary for the health, safety and good government of said town and to give full force and effect to the powers and authority conferred on said corporation, and may enforce such ordinance by providing reasonable fines and penalties.

SEC. 10. And be further enacted, That the Mayor and Common Council shall have power to levy on or before the thirtieth day of June for each year, the tax year commencing with the first day of July, taxes at such rates as they may find necessary to meet anticipated expenses for the coming fiscal year, not to exceed ten cents on the hundred dollars based on the State and County assessment for all purposes, and all taxes so levied shall be