

made; and provided further that nothing in this Section shall in any manner be construed to exempt from taxation either directly or indirectly (1) any lines, poles or wires for the transmission or distribution of electricity, (2) any property of any such person, firm or corporation situate beyond or outside of the premises or close on a part of which any such power stations or manufactories shall be located, (3) any other property owned by any such person, firm or corporation and not actually used in or about the generation of electricity at such power stations or manufactories, and (4) any residences or business properties, wheresoever situate, owned by any such person, firm or corporation, but not directly or actually used in or about the generation of electricity, whether the same be used or occupied by said person, firm or corporation, or his, her, their or its employees, or by any person whatsoever; and provided further that the benefit of the power and authority conferred upon the County Commissioners of Dorchester County and the municipal corporations therein, to grant the exemptions authorized by this Section, shall inure to any persons, firms or corporations who shall begin actual construction of any such power stations or manufactories at any time after the date of the passage of this Act and before the date on which the same shall become effective and to the stock of any such corporation, from the time such power and authority shall be exercised by said County Commissioners or by the governing bodies of such municipal corporations, and such construction of said power stations or manufactories, within such period, shall be presumed to have been induced by the terms of this Act.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on June 1st, 1927.

Approved March 23, 1927.

CHAPTER 117.

AN ACT to repeal Sections 387, 388, 388-A, 389, 391 and 392 of Article 16 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Montgomery County," sub-title "Liquors and Intoxicating Drinks," as said sections were repealed and re-enacted by Chapter 454 of the Acts of the General