

appointed by the Mayor and Town Council, and each shall take the oath prescribed for town officers. The place and hours for holding any and all elections in said town shall be determined by the Mayor and Town Council.

SEC. 5. That the Mayor and Town Council shall meet in some convenient place in said town on or before the first Monday in June, 1927, and shall meet thereafter not less than once a month for the discharge of all public duties. The majority shall form a quorum for the transaction of business but the Mayor shall have no vote except in case of ties. The Mayor and Council shall pass such rules and regulations consistent with the provisions of this Act for their own government while in session. The office of any Councilman absent from three consecutive meetings without a valid excuse shall become vacant, and such and all other vacancies shall be filled by the Mayor and Town Council from the qualified voters of said town. The Mayor shall preside at all meetings of the Council and shall from time to time as he may deem necessary call special meetings, but in case of his absence from any meeting, the Councilmen present shall elect one of their members to preside, who shall, for the time being, have all the authority of the Mayor.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the Mayor and the Town Council, at least one month before each election, to appoint the aforementioned judges and clerks for conducting and holding said election. The Judges and clerks provided shall constitute a Board of Election Supervisors for said town and shall determine the qualifications and the rights of each voter to participate in the town election. The judges shall be provided with a list of the qualified voters of said town by the Town Clerk, whose duty it shall be to keep a register of the town voters. The judges shall also prepare ballots containing the names of those persons who have complied with the provisions herein specified making them eligible to become candidates for the office for which they seek. The Mayor and Town Council shall receive all returns of elections and determine all questions arising thereunder, and for that purpose shall meet within three days after election, but any voter who feels that he has been aggrieved by any ruling as to his eligibility to vote may file an appeal to the Circuit Court of Prince George's County.

SEC. 7. That any person desiring to run for the office of Mayor, Treasurer or Town Councilman of said town shall be
