

further amount as may be necessary to pay the interest upon the bonds and notes hereby authorized, then outstanding from year to year during each year that any of the said bonds or notes remain outstanding, and shall during the first five years after said bonds are issued collect said money so levied and place it in a separate fund and pay for and redeem any of said notes which are due, together with the interest on said notes, and which cannot be paid from the separate fund heretofore provided, in Section 3 of this Act, and shall pay for the interest upon all the aforesaid bonds outstanding, and shall annually pay for and redeem, after the fifth year of their issue, Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars of said bonds. Said sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, and the amount necessary for interest as aforesaid, so levied, shall be included in the general levy of the said Mayor and City Council of Cumberland; provided, however, that the said annual levy of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars and interest shall not be made for any longer period of time than is necessary to provide for the retirement of all of said bonds and notes, and whenever there is a sufficient sum of money in the separate funds above mentioned to retire all outstanding bonds and notes issued under this Act, and to pay the interest thereon to maturity, the obligation to make said annual levy of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars and interest shall cease, and any money remaining in said separate funds after the payment of all outstanding bonds and notes, issued under this Act, together with the interest thereon, shall revert to the general funds of the City of Cumberland, and any money thereafter collected from any liens filed for the purpose of collecting money expended under the authority of this Act shall also revert to the general funds of said City, except such part of said money collected on said liens as may be required to repay money borrowed under the provisions of the next succeeding section of this Act.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and City Council of Cumberland be and it is hereby authorized and empowered to borrow from time to time, on the security of any unpaid liens filed for the purpose of collecting money expended under the authority of this Act, such sum or sums of money, not exceeding the face value of said liens, as may be needed to cover any deficits which may from time to time occur in the separate funds provided for the payment of the principal and interest of said "Flood Prevention Notes, of 1927," said
