

NO. 23.

A Resolution of the Senate of Maryland expressing thanks to the Cities of Cumberland and Hagerstown, the Frostburg State Normal School, the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company, the Consolidation Coal Company, the American Cellulose Company, the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company.

WHEREAS, The members of the Senate of Maryland visited Western Maryland during the past week-end at the invitation of the Cities of Cumberland and Hagerstown; and

WHEREAS, the members of said Senate were welcomed and entertained by the Cities of Cumberland and Hagerstown, the Frostburg State Normal School, the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company, the Consolidation Coal Company, the American Cellulose Company, the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company; and

WHEREAS, The members of said Senate desire to express their deepest gratitude for the hospitality extended to them; therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate of Maryland, That the thanks of the said Senate be and the same are hereby expressed to the officials, civic organizations and citizens of the Cities of Cumberland and Hagerstown, and to the officials and members of the faculty of the Frostburg State Normal School, and to the officials of the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company, the Consolidation Coal Company, the American Cellulose Company, the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company; and be it further

Resolved, That these resolutions be printed in the Journal.

Approved April 5, 1927.

---

NO. 24.

A Joint Resolution requesting and authorizing the Governor of Maryland to appoint a Commission to examine the laws of the state and report as to those which are obsolete and useless.