

(3) Said oysters shall be inspected and measured at the place of sale where the oysters are to be no further shipped in bulk in vessels, and before unloading the captain of each vessel shall exhibit and deliver to the buyer one of the certificates furnished by the Deputy Commander, showing that such cargo of oysters is subject to the special charge or tax. Such oysters shall be unloaded only in the presence of an inspector, whose duty it shall be to inspect, measure and report upon such oysters in the same manner as upon other oysters caught and sold in this State.

(4) Oysters caught upon reserved areas shall not be shipped out of the State of Maryland until the special charge or tax shall have been paid.

(5) Oysters caught upon reserved areas shall be culled in accordance with the existing law relating to culling, and the under-sized oysters shall be returned to the natural bars from which they were taken.

(6) Before any oysters are caught upon such reserved areas, the captain of each vessel shall take out a special license from the Commissioner at a cost of five dollars per vessel, such license to be issued only after the captain of such vessel has taken an oath before said Commissioner, or his agent, that he will not remove oysters caught upon such reserved areas until the Deputy Commander's certificates in the form above provided, has been issued to him, that he will faithfully comply with all provisions of law regulating the catching of oysters upon reserved areas, and that he will pay, or cause to be paid, the special charge or tax upon all such oysters so caught by him.

Catching oysters upon such reserved areas shall continue subject to the foregoing conditions and restrictions during the remainder of the oyster season current at the time the Commissioner re-opens same, as above provided unless the Commissioner shall have named a prior closing date, in which event the area shall remain closed until it is opened to the public in the same manner as hereinbefore provided. If, after the close of the then current oyster season, the Commissioner does not again set aside the said area for replenishing, it shall at the beginning of the following season be thrown open to public use in the same manner as other natural beds and bars are now used. Any person who shall catch oysters upon such reserved areas contrary to the provisions, conditions and restrictions of this Section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to the penalties provided for in Section 156 of this Article.
