

CHAPTER 10.

AN ACT to authorize and empower the municipal corporation, The Town Commissioners of Centreville, to borrow upon the faith and credit of said municipal corporation, the sum of nineteen thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the purpose of paying for new boilers, and piping for the Electric Plant of said municipal corporation and installing same therein and for the building of an addition to said Electric Plant building; to execute the promissory notes of said municipal corporation and to renew said notes from time to time for a period not exceeding seven years from January 1, 1927.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Town Commissioners of Centreville, a municipal corporation, be and it is hereby authorized and empowered to borrow, upon the faith and credit of the said municipal corporation, the sum of nineteen thousand dollars, for the purpose of paying for new boilers and piping and installing the same in the Electric Plant of said municipal corporation, and also for making an addition to the building of said Electric Plant and to execute the promissory notes of said municipal corporation, the Town Commissioners of Centreville, for the amount so borrowed. Said notes shall be drawn in such amounts as the said municipal corporation shall in its discretion determine, but the total amount of said promissory notes shall not exceed the aforesaid sum of nineteen thousand dollars and the said municipal corporation, the Town Commissioners of Centreville, is hereby authorized and empowered, for and during a period not exceeding seven years from and after the first day of January 1927, to renew the said promissory notes as they mature from time to time, in whole or in part, until all of said promissory notes and interest to accrue thereon have been fully paid, but no renewal note shall be drawn so as to fall due after the first day of January 1934, and no renewal notes shall be given by said municipal corporation after the first day of January, 1934.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained is intended or shall be taken or construed to relieve the Town Commissioners of Centreville from any and all provisions of Chapter 180 of the Acts of 1910 of the General Assembly of Maryland, known as the Public Service Commission Law, or any amendments thereto.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safety and health, and being passed
