

quired in each and every year hereafter while the bonds hereby authorized or any of them are outstanding and unpaid, to levy and collect a special tax on the property of all kinds and description, liable to assessment and taxation within the corporate limits of the City of Westminster, which tax shall be sufficient to pay the interest on the bonds outstanding by them issued under the provisions of this Act and the principal thereof as the same shall severally fall due, until they shall have all been redeemed and retired at the time of maturity herein set forth; and the proceeds of such tax collected shall by the Mayor and Common Council be placed to their order in some safe depository as a separate and distinct fund, and by it only applied to the payment of the interest and redemption of said bonds, when and as soon as they shall become due and redeemable, and when redeemed said bonds and any coupons shall be cancelled, and said taxes are pledged to the payment of the interest and principal of said bonds, and can be used for no other purpose, except, that when all of said bonds are paid, the balance if any in such fund is to go into the general account of the said Mayor and Common Council.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, that this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 26, 1927.

CHAPTER 133.

AN ACT to amend the charter of Westminster by adding new sections to follow immediately after Section 215 of Article Seven of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Carroll County," sub-title "Westminster," as amended by the Acts of 1910 Chapter 341, said sections to be designated as Sections 215-A, 215-B, 215-C, 215-D and 215-E, and provide for the extension of the limits of Westminster.

(Vetoed.)