

struct sidewalks, curbs, gutters and roadbed and street improvements in any road, street, or avenue in said annexed territory made a public highway of said town by this Act, or by said Mayor and Common Council acting under the power and authority granted by this Act, (which improvements may be constructed all at the same time or at different times) and, after the completion of said improvements, or any of them, it shall assess the cost thereof upon the land abutting the same. The construction of said sidewalks, curbs, gutters and roadbed and street improvements, or any of them, and the assessment of the costs thereof shall be made under the provisions of the Laws of Maryland, and any amendments thereof, applicable to the Mayor and Common Council of Hyattsville authorizing it to make such improvements and to assess the costs thereof against the property abutting the same, and shall be collected in the same manner provided for the collection and enforcement of taxes and assessments of the town of Hyattsville.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That all the inhabitants of the territory annexed to the town of Hyattsville by this Act shall, in all respects and to all intents and purposes, be subject to the powers, jurisdiction and authority vested, or to be vested by law, in the Mayor and Common Council of Hyattsville, and to all the ordinances now in force in said town, or which may hereafter be enacted and ordained by it, so far as the same may be consistent with the provisions of this Act, and the territory so annexed shall, in all respects, be taken and considered as a part of the municipal corporation of the Mayor and Common Council of Hyattsville.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of determining whether the residents of the territory hereinabove described desire the same to be annexed to the town of Hyattsville, there shall be held an election on the fourth Tuesday in April, 1927, and Dwight B. Galt, Herbert F. Mitchell, Sylvanus F. Bergling, Mrs. Marie Hollingsworth, Roland T. Read, Howard L. Little, John R. England, Mrs. Marie Felter and William Craighead are hereby appointed a committee for the purpose of holding said election. In the event any of said committee shall die, become incapacitated from acting for any cause, or refuse to act, the said election shall be held by the remaining member or members of said committee.
