

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That annually on or before the first Monday in June, the Mayor and Council shall appoint two judges, who shall appoint a clerk, to conduct an election by ballot on the first Monday in July, if not a legal holiday, and if a legal holiday, then on the day following, for the election of officers as provided for in Section 5 of this Act. The polls shall be open between the hours of five and nine P. M.; the two judges and the clerk above provided for shall constitute the Board of Election Supervisors for said town, and shall determine the qualifications and right of each voter to participate in the town election by asking each applicant who presents himself to vote at the election which they have been appointed to conduct, under oath, these questions: First—What is your name? Second—Have you resided in Colmar Manor for a period of one year immediately preceding this election? Third—Are you 21 years of age or over? Fourth—In what ward do you live? And should the answers of the applicant be in the affirmative to the second and third questions, then it shall be the duty of said Board of Election Supervisors to allow such applicant to cast his ballot in the ward in which he resides, and should the answer of the said applicant be in the negative to either of the above second and third questions then and in that event he shall not be allowed to vote. Should the applicant answer any one of the above provided questions falsely he shall be guilty of the crime of perjury and be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the State of Maryland. The Judges shall provide themselves with a list of the voters living within the boundaries of said town, and if a person votes whose name is not on said list a record shall be made of that fact, and the truth of such person's answers to the above provided questions shall be investigated, and if found to be false it shall be the duty of said judges to cause the offender to be indicted for perjury. They shall also prepare ballots containing the names of those persons who have complied with the provisions herein specified making them eligible to become a candidate for the office for which they seek. The Mayor and Council shall receive all returns of elections and determine all questions arising thereunder.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That any person desiring to run for said Mayor, Treasurer, Clerk, or Councilman of said town, shall be at least Twenty-five years of age and shall have resided within the boundary limits of said town for at least one year immediately prior to election and each of whom
