

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That, for the purpose of retiring the said bonds authorized to be issued by this Act, and the payment of the interest thereon, there shall be levied against all the assessable property within the corporate limits of the said town of Kitzmillersville by the Mayor and Town Council of said town annually, so long as any of said bonds are outstanding and not paid, a tax sufficient to meet the interest or any part of said interest on said bonds as it becomes due, and to pay the principal thereof as they mature, said tax to be determined, levied, collected and paid over in the same manner as provided for other taxes in said municipality.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That on the first Tuesday in May, 1927, there shall be a special election held in the town of Kitzmillersville, which election shall be held in the same manner and under the same regulations as other municipal elections held in said town, for the purpose of submitting the question as to whether or not this Act shall take effect to all legal voters of said town who are qualified to vote at a regular town election, and all ballots at said election shall have printed on them the words following, to-wit: "For River Wall Bonds" and "Against River Wall Bonds," and the qualified voters of said town desiring to vote on said question at said election, shall indicate their choice of said propositions by making a cross-mark opposite the proposition for which they desire to register their vote, and if a majority of the votes so cast are marked "For River Wall Bonds," then this Act shall be in full force and effect, otherwise shall be null and void and of no effect. The judges of election shall, under their hands and seals, immediately after said election certify to the Mayor and Town Council of Kitzmillersville the result of said election.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 1, 1927.
