

successor is appointed and has qualified. The County Commissioners shall appoint such assistant or assistants to aid the Superintendent and for such period or periods as they deem necessary for the proper management and maintenance of the said County Home and County Farm.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners shall have power to remove from office the Superintendent or any assistant whenever in their judgment the interest of the County may require such removal. In case of a removal from office, the County Commissioners shall appoint a successor to fill out the unexpired term of the person removed.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners shall require the Superintendent, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, to give a bond with security approved by them, payable to the County Commissioners of Garrett County, in the penalty of one thousand ($1,000) dollars, conditioned as follows, to wit: "The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound A. B. as Superintendent of the County Home and County Farm in Garrett County, shall well and truly perform and discharge his duties in said station, then the above obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law."

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the said Superintendent shall receive such fair and reasonable salary as to be agreed upon by the County Commissioners and the Superintendent for services to be rendered by him and his family per annum and so pro rata during his continuance in office. This salary to be exclusive of board and lodging for himself and family. The assistant or assistants, if any are appointed, shall receive such compensation as the County Commissioners shall deem proper.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the Superintendent shall have charge and custody of the lands, goods and chattels at the County Home and the County Farm and of the inmates committed to the County Home, and he shall take care, manage and govern the same under the supervision of and according to the rules and regulations laid down by the County Commissioners.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That the Superintendent shall keep a complete set of account books for the County Home and County Farm, showing receipts and expenditures, including receipts from the sale or sales of the produce from the County Farm and from the labor of the inmates of the
