

County Home. He shall render the County Commissioners a monthly statement under oath, to be administered by one of the County Commissioners, or the Clerk to said County Commissioners, showing the receipts and expenditures for the past month with the vouchers therefor, together with a statement of his requirements for the coming month.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners shall also keep a complete set of account books for the County Home and County Farm. This set of books shall not only include items relating to the maintenance of the County Home and County Farm, but also items relating to the original cost of the County Farm and the erection of the County Home and outbuildings, if it is necessary to erect the same or any of them, and of the equipment and other things placed on the Farm and in the Home.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners shall meet at the County Home at least once in every three months. They shall use every effort to make the cost of the purchase and maintenance of the County Home and County Farm as economical as possible and consistent with the proper care of the inmates. Especially shall they use economical methods in the purchase of supplies and materials. No County Commissioner shall sell supplies or materials to or be in any way interested in the sale of them to the County Home or County Farm.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners shall be compensated for their services and reimbursed for their expenses in connection with the County Home and County Farm in the same manner and at the same rate as for their services and expenses in connection with other county matters.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That the Superintendent shall keep a list of the inmates committed to the County Home, showing their names, places of birth, nationality, age at time of commitment, date of commitment, date of discharge or of death, as the case may be, cause of death, if inmate died at the County Home, whether or not the inmate was previously committed there and, if so, how often and for how long each time. A copy of the list shall be furnished by the Superintendent of the County Commissioners semi-annually on the first day of January and June of each year and whenever they shall require.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That the Superintendent shall compel all of the inmates of the County Home, if of sufficient ability, to work.
