

SEC. 16. And be it further enacted, That upon complaint and due proof made by the Superintendent to a Justice of the Peace of Garrett County that any person in the County Home has behaved in a disorderly manner or has refused or neglected to obey any of the rules or regulations of the County Home, the said Justice of the Peace may direct such moderate and proper correction to be given to such offenders as the nature of the case may require.

SEC. 17. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners, as a body, may commit all such poor, feeble-minded, aged, crippled and others, who are or are likely to become public charges, to and they shall be received in the County Home; provided that any one Commissioner may, during the interval between meetings of the County Commissioners as a body, commit a poor, feeble-minded, aged, crippled or other person who is or is likely to become a public charge, and he or she, as the case may be, shall be received into the County Home and there remain until the next meeting of the Commissioners as a body, at which time they shall determine whether or not the said person shall remain there longer.

SEC. 18. And be it further enacted, That all sheriffs, constables and other officers shall assist the County Commissioners and the Superintendent and other officers appointed by them in the discharge of their respective duties.

SEC. 19. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners be and they are hereby authorized, empowered and directed to raise the funds necessary for the purchase of the County Farm, for the building of the County Home, if it becomes necessary to build one, for the erection on the County Farm of such buildings, fences, etc., as they deem necessary and for supplying the necessary equipment, furniture, farming implements and live stock, by issuing bonds of the County, either coupon or serial, for such an amount, in such denomination or denominations, bearing such interest and maturing at such date or dates as the County Commissioners deem proper or by paying for the same out of the funds of the County raised by the regular tax levy or by an extra levy to be made by the County Commissioner for that purpose or purposes or by a combination of any one or more or all of these methods, whichever with a due regard for the sound financial condition of the County, seems to the County Commissioners most proper. The County Commissioners be and they are further authorized, empowered and directed to pay out of the funds raised by the regular tax levy or by an extra tax levy, to be made by the County Commissioners, for that purpose or purposes, the interest and the principal on the bonds aforesaid, if issued, and