

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland that a new additional section be added to the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Frederick County" sub-title "Frederick," as codified in the code of Public Local Laws prepared by Edward S. Delaplaine, Esq., relating to the collection of taxes in Frederick City, to be known as Section 253A, to follow Section 253, and to read as follows:

253A. Before the first day of February in each year the City Register and Collector of Taxes shall mail to each delinquent taxpayer a statement of the amount due, which statement shall contain a provision that if the taxes are not paid within thirty days he will proceed to collect the same by distress or execution to be levied on the property assessed, or by suit at law, and that he will publish the names of all delinquent taxpayers on or immediately after the 10th day of March following. In the event any such delinquent has not paid said taxes by the said tenth day of March said City Register and Collector of Taxes shall publish in some newspaper, published in Frederick County, the name of every such delinquent, the amount due and a brief description of the property assessed as the same appears on the records in his office, once a week for two successive weeks and the cost of such publication shall be added to the amount due by any such delinquent. In the event said taxes and costs are not paid by the fifth day of April following then the City Register and Collector of Taxes shall proceed to collect the same either by distress or by suit at law.

Approved April 5, 1927.

CHAPTER 221.

AN ACT to authorize, empower and require the County Commissioners of Dorchester County to issue coupon bonds on the credit of Dorchester County to the amount of two hundred thousand dollars for the erection of a public school building in the town of Cambridge, in said county, and purchasing a site for same, and for repairing and enlarging existing school buildings in said town; and for the purpose of either erecting a new public school building and purchasing a site for the same in or near the town of Hurlock, in said county, or of enlarging and making additions to the existing building in said town; and for renovating, furnishing and equipping such buildings; to appoint committee to con-
