CHAPTER 227.

AN ACT to authorize and empower the Mayor and Council of Easton to purchase such additional fire equipment and appliances as they may deem necessary for the use of said town and to provide a suitable building to house the Easton Fire Department and Equipment, and to provide offices in said building for the needs of the Town Government; and to borrow on the faith and credit of the town a sum not exceeding $30,000., and to issue bonds therefor, and to provide for the payment of the same with interest thereon; and for the appointment of a commission to have charge of the purchase of said equipment, and of the purchase of land and erection of such building.

WHEREAS, by Ordinance Number 270, passed by the Mayor and Council of Easton on the 21st day of January, 1927, a special election was ordered to be held in the Town of Easton on Tuesday, March 1st, 1927, at which election the question should be submitted to the legally qualified voters of said town, as to whether they were "for" or "against" the proposition to purchase fire equipment and to provide suitable building to house the Easton Fire Department, and to contain offices for the various needs of the town government, and the issuance of coupon bonds by the Mayor and Council of Easton for an amount not exceeding $30,000., and the levying of an annual tax on the assessable property of the town sufficient to pay such bonds with the interest thereon, as they severally become due and payable;
