

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That at the next general city election to be held in the City of Salisbury, next after the passage of this Act, there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the City of Salisbury the question whether bonds shall be issued for the purpose of extending and improving the water and sewer system of Salisbury, and at such election the ballots cast upon such question shall have the words "For Water and Sewer Extension Bonds;" and "Against Water and Sewer Extension Bonds" thereon, and if a majority of the votes cast upon such question shall be "For Water and Sewer Extension Bonds," then the Mayor and Council of Salisbury shall proceed to exercise the rights and powers authorized by this Act, but if a majority of the votes cast shall be "Against Water and Sewer Extension Bonds," then this Act shall be of no effect, provided, however, that the same question shall be voted upon in the same manner at any succeeding general municipal election at which the Mayor and Council of Salisbury may, in its discretion, submit said question, and when submitted and favorably passed upon by the voters as aforesaid, all of the provisions of this Act shall immediately become effective.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote supported by three-fifths ($\frac{3}{5}$) of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 1, 1927.

CHAPTER 256.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 250 of Article 13, of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Harford County," sub-title "Sheriff," as the same was enacted by Chapter 98, of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, 1918.

WHEREAS, There has been a great increase in the criminal work of the Sheriff of Harford County, due to the construc-
