

along any such highway, road or street of the signs or markers mentioned in this Act shall be prima facie evidence of the passage of the rules, orders and/or regulations herein provided for.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That wherever the word "vehicle" is used in this Act or in any rule, order or regulation passed by the Board of County Commissioners pursuant to this Act it shall be held to include every automobile and motorcycle and every wagon, carriage, omnibus, push cart, bicycle and other conveyance (except baby carriages) in whatever manner or by whatever force or power the same may be driven, propelled or ridden, which is or may be used for and adopted to pleasure riding or transportation of passengers, baggage, merchandise or freight upon the public highway; and all commercial stands whether on wheels or otherwise, and every draught and riding animal, excepting that an animal or animals attached to any vehicle shall with such vehicle constitute one (1) vehicle. The term "vehicle" shall not be construed to include street railway cars except as to obeying all traffic signals of police or signal lights.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That all laws or parts of laws and all regulations in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby annulled to the extent of such conflict. And all laws or parts of laws and all regulations not amended or superseded by this Act remain in full force and effect.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That any person violating any provisions of this Act or any rule, order and/or regulation passed by the Board of County Commissioners pursuant hereto shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace of said County shall be fined for each and every offense any sum not less than one dollar and not exceeding twenty-five dollars; but any person so convicted of any offense under this Act shall have the right to appeal from the judgment of such Justice of the Peace to the Circuit Court for Baltimore County and such Court on such appeal shall hear the case de novo; provided, however, that such appeal be taken within ten days from the date of judgment. Upon appeal being prayed as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the magistrate to endorse upon the papers "appeal prayed" and transmit the same to the Clerk of the Court as aforesaid. It shall not be necessary