

DISQUALIFICATION.

Section 179-S. Said Justices during their term of office shall hold no other office of profit created by the Laws of the United States or the State of Maryland; they shall not sit in any cause or render judgment in any cause where the plaintiff or defendant is a corporation in which they are interested; nor shall they sit or render judgment in any cause where they are interested parties or where any of the parties to the cause may be connected by affinity or consanguinity within such prohibited degrees as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law, or where they have given advice to any parties to the cause, or have been counsel in the case; they shall not be put to trial or held liable criminally or civilly for error of judgment or honest mistake in the performance of their duties; but they may be removed from office in the manner prescribed by the Constitution or Laws of this State.

FINES IN POLICE COURT.

Section 179-T. All fines imposed by said Justices while sitting as City Police Magistrates shall be remitted to the Mayor and City Council of Cumberland, Maryland, in the same manner as fines are now remitted in Police Court; said Justices may in their discretion transfer the trial of police cases from the City Hall to the Peoples Court Rooms; when either of said Justices are sitting as City Police Magistrate they shall be deemed to be and they are hereby declared to be the judicial authority, subject to the right of appeal within ten days from entry of judgment having power to pass upon and render judgment in respect to the violation of the Charter and Ordinances; rules and regulations of the Mayor and City Council of Cumberland, Maryland, and as such they shall have and acquire all the powers which the City Police Magistrate of Cumberland now has; they shall be free from the direction or interference or supervision of the Mayor and City Council of Cumberland, Maryland, its Officers, Department Heads or Employees; and upon the refusal of any member of the Police Department of the City of Cumberland to carry out any order of said Justices when sitting as City Magistrate, said Justice shall prefer charges against said member of said Police Department with the proper authority.

CLERKS AND BAILIFF.

Section 179-U. There shall be appointed by the said Justices for the term of two years and each two years thereafter, a
