

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed upon a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 1, 1927.

CHAPTER 301.

AN ACT to provide for the purchase of a site for a public school building in or near the corporate limits of the Town of La Plata, in Charles County, Maryland, and for the erecting, equipping and furnishing of such public school building thereon, including heating apparatus therefor; and authorizing, empowering and directing the County Commissioners of Charles County, upon the written demand of the building committee provided for in this Act, to issue coupon bonds to the extent of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) on the faith and credit of said county, to be applied to the cost of purchasing said site and the erecting, equipping and furnishing of said school building, and to levy a tax on the assessable property of the said county to pay interest thereon and to pay for said bonds as they become due and payable.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That W. Mitchell Digges, Warren M. Albrittain and Leo K. Farrell, all of Charles County, Maryland, be and they are hereby appointed a committee to be styled "The Building Committee of the La Plata Public School," to serve without pay, for the purpose of purchasing an adequate site for a public school building in or near the corporate limits of the Town of La Plata in Charles County, Maryland, and for the further purpose of erecting a public school building on said site, to be constructed of such material as may be selected by the Building Committee, and to equip and furnish said building and provide suitable and sufficient heating apparatus therefor; that two of said committee shall constitute a quorum; and the concurrence of two of them shall be necessary for the decision on all questions which may arise in the discharge of their duties; that all vacancies in said Building Committee,