

mittee, such sum or sums of money as shall be certified in said warrants to be due for the performance of the contract, or for work done or material furnished and shall pay upon the warrant of the said Building Committee the cost of the plans and specifications of the work to be done, the salary of the architect, if one is selected, the purchase price to be paid for the building site, and such other expenses as the Building Committee have properly incurred in the discharge of its duty, and no part of the proceeds of the said Bonds shall be paid out by the said Treasurer, except upon the warrant of the said Building Committee.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That should the Building Committee find it expedient to reject all bids as provided in Section 5 of this Act, it shall, in its discretion, re-advertise, or it shall have the right to construct, equip and furnish the said school building in any other way, method or manner as it shall deem best, and the said Treasurer of the Board of Education of Charles County shall pay the warrants of the said Building Committee in the same manner and under the same terms as if the contract for the same was awarded as set forth in Section 5 aforesaid.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That all contracts entered into by the aforesaid Building Committee under and by virtue of the authority contained in this Act shall be legal and binding upon the County Board of Education of Charles County as if said contract had been entered into by the said Board of Education of Charles County.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That the title to the building provided to be erected by this Act, shall when erected and completed, be in the Board of Education of Charles County, as provided by Article 77, Section 41 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition).

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That this Act is an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a ye and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 1, 1927.