

Section 13. Be it enacted, That this repeal and re-enactment with amendments of the said Act mentioned in the title of this Act shall not affect any act done or any right accruing or accrued or any suit or proceeding had or commenced in any civil or criminal cause before such repeal and re-enactment with amendments, but all rights and liabilities under the said Act so repealed and re-enacted with amendments shall continue and may be enforced in the same manner as if such repeal and re-enactments with amendments had not been made.

Section 13-A. Be it enacted, That all fines, penalties and forfeitures including the cost in any and all cases, and for violations of any of the provisions of the Public General or Public Local Laws shall be paid over to the Board of County Commissioners for Montgomery County for the use of the county and the said County Commissioners are hereby authorized, directed and empowered to include annually in their levy of taxes the amounts necessary to pay the salaries and expenses provided for in this Act. That the Police Justice shall prescribe rules and regulations governing the practice and procedure in said Court, and shall prescribe the form of writs, both civil and criminal, to be used therein. The County Commissioners shall prepare proper return forms for the other Justices of the Peace to be used by them in all cases originating before them, said forms to be in duplicate, and in all cases where the cause of action originated before any of the Justices of the Peace other than the Police Justice the said Justice shall make out in duplicate the form furnished by the County Commissioners, setting forth in detail his action in the matter and attaching thereto the recognizance or inclosing therewith the collateral accepted by said Justice for the appearance of the defendant before the Police Justice for trial and the said Justice shall immediately transmit to the said Police Justice a copy of the docket entries and all of the papers in the case, together with the recognizance or collateral in each and every case, to the said Police Justice, it being the intent and purpose of this Act that the Police Justice shall have exclusive jurisdiction so far as other Justices of the Peace are concerned, to hear, try and determine and enter judgment in all cases in which he is given jurisdiction under the provision of this Act, and that the other Justices of the Peace shall have no power or authority to try, hear or determine or in any criminal case pronounce judgment.
