

selected by the State Roads Commission, in its discretion, and in such manner as the said Commission may determine, and the same rights and powers are hereby conferred upon the said State Roads Commission in connection with the said work as are possessed by said Commission in connection with the building of roads.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the State Roads Commission is hereby authorized and directed to ask for bids and enter into contracts in the usual form for the construction of such bridges as it may from time to time under the provisions hereof determine to construct, said contracts to be made in the name of the State Roads Commission, and to contain the same provisions now required by law for contracts for roads.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners of the several Counties of the State, and the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore are hereby respectively directed to levy State taxes for the year 1928 at nine one-hundredths ($9/100$) of one cent on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessable property; for the year 1929 at seventeen one hundredths ($17/100$) of one cent on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessable property; for the year 1930 at thirty one hundredths ($30/100$) of one cent on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessable property; for the year 1931 and annually thereafter to and including the year 1943 at forty-one one hundredths ($41/100$) of one cent on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessable property, to be collected according to law, to meet the interest on the amount of said certificates outstanding and also to meet and redeem so much of the principal in each of said years as will be represented by certificates redeemable in each year, respectively, as herein specified in Section 2 of this Act.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That this Act is an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 11, 1927.
