

Court of Baltimore City, or the Circuit Court of any County of the State, as the case may be, to sentence a person previously convicted but not sentenced, or where the person is under a suspended sentence or on probation, although said sentence had been suspended or said probation granted by a judge other than the presiding judge.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and it is hereby added to Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Sentence," to be known as Section 577-B of said Article, and to read as follows:

577-B. Whenever any person shall have been convicted of any offense in any of the Courts of Record, of this State, having criminal jurisdiction, and the judge presiding therein shall not have imposed sentence or shall have suspended sentence generally or for a definite time or shall have placed the offender upon probation, or shall have made such other order and imposed such other terms as he may deem proper, and said person should at any time thereafter be brought before the Court to be sentenced upon the original charge of his conviction, or for a violation of the terms and conditions of the order of probation in the case, the judge who may then be presiding in that particular Court may proceed to sentence the said person.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety and being passed upon a ye and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 5, 1927.

CHAPTER 399.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 27 of Article 3 of the Public Local Laws of Maryland (Offutt's 1916 Edition), title "Baltimore County," sub-title "Birds and Game," prohibiting sale of certain birds and game in Baltimore County.

(Vetoed)