

such fines, penalties and forfeitures and punishment for the breach of their ordinances, resolutions or regulations as they may think proper, not exceeding Twenty-five Dollars for any one offense, and for the non-payment of such fines, penalties and forfeitures may commit the offender to the County Jail, or to such place of confinement in said town as they may provide, for a period not exceeding thirty days, in the same manner as commitments are made for fines and penalties imposed by the Circuit Court on conviction for misdemeanor; to remit, at any time, any fine, penalty or forfeiture, or any part thereof, in their discretion; to provide by ordinance for the immediate arrest, without warrant, of any person found violating any town ordinance, resolution or regulation, and when it shall appear that the offender is intoxicated, may confine said offender in some secure place until he shall be sober, and may provide further for the confinement of any person arrested, if the time be unreasonable, as in the night, whereby he cannot attend the Justice of the Peace until a reasonable hour the succeeding morning, when he shall be taken before a Justice of the Peace and dealt with according to the nature of the offense; provided that such person so arrested may deposit with the Bailiff a sum of money or other security to cover any fine that may be assessed against him for the violation of any ordinance, resolution or regulation.

To prohibit or restrain the running at large of any dogs or other animals and to provide for the enforcement thereof, provided that in the case of dogs, such prohibition shall not continue for more than ninety days consecutively, and to make such regulations for impounding, and to impose such fines or penalties in relation to the same as to them may seem necessary and proper.

And shall have power to pass ordinances, resolutions or regulations to require any and all things to be done which will promote the welfare, good government and prosperity, or of any nature which, in their judgment, affect the health, order or morals of the town, and to forbid whatever will oppress or injure them in their persons and property.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on the first day of June, 1927.

Approved April 5, 1927.